GREENEVILLE

Rev. C. H. Ricketts Will Be Memorial Day Speaker at Ludlow-Fishing Party-Notes.

Miss Katherine Maurin of Bishop's Crossing has been visiting Miss Helen McKenna of East Norwich.

John Heath, George Benson, Gilbert Church and John Howarth were at the Navy yard on Friday and returned with forty fine flatfish.

Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, pastor of the Greenville Congregational church, has accepted an invitation to be the Memorial day speaker this year at Ludlow, Mass.

The shopmen at the Connecticut company's barn had one of the new cars out Friday afternoon for a trial. Everything worked satisfactorily and the car will probably be used today. The car was put in shape in fast time, as it was received only a week ago, and the two cars at the barn will be ready in a short time.

TAFVILLE

Pole Line for Velvet Mill Nearly Completed—Company's Spring Plowing Begun—Persons.

Charles Girard of Plainfield was in town Friday.

Albert Adams returned home Friday after spending Easter with relatives in Leominster, Mass.

Miss Fannie Perry returned to her home in Danbury Friday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Packer of North A street.

Boss Farmer E. W. Yerrington had men at work Friday on the side hill on the south side of the village, beginning the company's spring plowing.

Misses Ethel Annie and Diana Maran, students at the Academy of the Holy Family at Andover, are spending the Easter vacation at their home on Hunters avenue.

Elizac Gorder, who moved to No. 4 South B street recently from Plainfield, returned to his former position as carpenter for the Penomah company, Monday. Mr. Gorder lived here eleven years and is glad to get back after about a year's absence.

The pole line which is being put up between the city's power station and the J. B. Martin company to transmit electric power to the velvet mill, has reached a point on Norwich avenue nearly as far as Baldwin's store, so that the work of putting in the poles is nearly over with. The wire has not yet been strung. The poles were put up without much difficulty, except on North Main street near the tannery, where the ledge interfered with digging the holes.

NORWICH TOWN

CLERGYMAN REPRIMANDED.

Rebuked by Common Pleas Judge for Having Sent Letter to New Haven Juror.

Pulpit and other discussion of the granting of licenses, the method of disposing of cases in court of saloonists who had been found guilty of infraction of the excise laws, and the manner of issuance of court certificates to convicted license holders, which has considerably agitated New Haven for some weeks, reached a climax Tuesday when Judge Wolfe of the common pleas court summoned Rev. Ernest L. Wisner, pastor of the Davenport Congregational church before him. A reprimand was given the clergyman by the court because he had written a letter to a juror who sat upon the jury which exonerated Albert Hollworth on a charge of violation of the excise law. Hollworth had appealed from a lower court conviction. On Saturday there was a vigorous opposition before the county commissioners to the regranting of a license to Hollworth.

The Offensive Letter.

The letter sent by Rev. Mr. Wisner to the juror contained this sentence: "It is not for me to inquire into the secrets of the jury room, but it is the feeling here in New Haven that no more flagrant disregard to the laws of decency and order by a juror has come to the ears of the public within recent years."

The letter also said: "As a member of that jury you stand on the only judge's court. Your name is pilloried in the papers with the others as men who almost perjured themselves in spite of the evidence of the police, and the general reputation of the place and the man. As one who knows you and your family in the days of my pastorate in North Branford, I cannot refrain from expressing my indignation and deep sorrow that one man who I had respected should have become so recreant to the cause of morality."

Minister's Reply.

Mr. Wisner, in reply to the court, said it was not his intention to disparage the court and that the letter was a private one, written by him to an old parishioner.

Judge Wolfe let the clergyman go without punishment, subject to the call of the court.

An Interesting Paper.

Charles H. Forrest of Hartford has in his possession an interesting paper, being a land grant of 160 acres, dated June 21, 1855, and signed by L. P. Waldo, commissioner to George I. Forrest, corporal, Captain William's company, Alabama militia, Creek war. The certificate carries with it pictures of the capital of Franklin Pierce, then president of the United States, and of J. C. Dobbin, then secretary of the navy.

Was to Have Given Storrs Lectures.

The late Justice David J. Brewer of the United States supreme court was to have delivered the Storrs lectures at the Yale law school in April. It is probable that the lectures will not be delivered, owing to the brief interval before the close of the courses in the school. Judge Brewer always intended to give considerable time to the law school in May.
